A literature review for your project

1. Give a one paragraph overview of the main ideas and goals of your project.

2. Give a literature review of 3-5 relevant papers. You can write one paragraph on each paper. Include a bibliography where the works are properly referenced.

3. Each team member must do their own literature review, choosing their own distinct papers. This will add breadth to your project.